Present: Dee Wood, Pat Yannarella, Phil Yannarella, Bekele Tegegne, Bruce Miracle, Billie Daniels, Karen Nuckolls, Rosemary Meszaros, Angel Clemons, Leigh Troutman, Sara Brown, Claudia Fitch, Barbara Whitener, Rae Shepherd-Schlechter, Claudene Sproles, Sandee McAninch, Kate Seago

Meeting was called to order at 4:10pm by Dee Wood, Chair

1. Minutes from the Spring Meeting, June 9, 2006
2. Secretary/Treasurer's report (Sara Brown)
 - a. Current Balance as of September 8, 2006 was $987.37
 - b. There are currently 24 active members to GODORT
3. Regional Depository Librarian's Report (Sandee McAninch)
 - a. ASERL proposal hasn't moved any further since spring. Roxanna Jones will be attending the meeting in D.C. with Sandee.
 - b. Sandee is accepting exchange lists. Sandee said that selectives can send as many lists as they can. She will let selectives know when it becomes an issue.
4. Kentucky State Publications Report (Leigh Troutman)
 - a. KDLA still has the joint committee on state pubs. They have completed the list on cataloging priorities. Sharon is still working on the proposal for OCLC. As of right now the state budget and other miscellaneous pubs are available in the catalog.
 - b. KDLA has lost their "web site person". They are working on a central page for state pubs that links to the e-archives.

c. Still not a circulating collection. However, they are working on ILL for state pubs.

5. Old Business

a. The letter is now a dead issue. The letter was originally written by Gary Austin to state librarian, both of whom are no longer in the Kentucky Libraries System.

b. The website still needs to be updated.

6. New Business

a. Location for the Spring meeting was discussed as well as speakers. Cindy Etkin was suggested as a speaker for spring meeting. All of the land grant institution depositories will be turning 100 years old. The discussion for the spring meeting was ended and it was decided that we would discuss it via email at a later date.

b. KLUG is suggesting that we partner with KYVL to offer training.

7. Meeting was adjourned at 4:43 pm by Dee Wood
